Hampton Singers

A VICTORIAN EVENING

AT FENTHAM HALL

SATURDAY 5TH DECEMBER 8.00 pm

Under the direction of

Dr. Andrew Dicks

Accompanist

Mr. Stuart Reeve

Master of Ceremonies

Mr. Graham Wright

Dress — Period (Optional)

Carriages — 10.30.

Programme — £2.00, to include refreshment, from Hampton Pharmacy and on the Door

HAMPTON SINGERS

1987

P R O G R A M M E

Grand Opera

"At the Capulet's Ball" from "Romeo and Juliet"
by Mr. Charles Gounod

"Search the World Over" and "Ah we Maidens know"
"The Last Rose of Summer" (sung by Miss Jacqueline Bartleet)
from "Martha" by Mr. Friedrich von Flotow

Songs from Old Ireland

"The Rose of Tralee" (sung by Mr. Peter Mace)
"Believe me if all those Endearing Young Charms"
by Mr. Thomas Moore
(with Mrs. Judith Docker and Mrs. Hilary Crosby)
"Killarney" by Mr. Michael Balfe, performed by the Ladies

In the Drawing Room

"Come into the Garden Maud"
(sung by Mr. Richard Cook)
"Come Live with Me"
"O Fly with Me" by Mr. Felix Mendelssohn

A Life on the Ocean Wave

"The Arethusa" and "Tom Bowling" performed by the Gentlemen

Songs of Mr. Stephen Foster

"There are Plenty of Fish in the Sea"
(sung by Mrs. Hilary Crosby)

"Come where my Love lies Dreaming"

English Opera - "The Bohemian Girl"

(Libretto by Mr. J. Bunn: Music by Mr. M. W. Balfe)

"Thou who in might supreme" and "Follow with heart and with arm" (Finale to Act One)

"I dreamt I dwelt in Marble Halls"
recounted by Miss Jacqueline Bartleet

"When other lips"
sung by Mr. Richard Cook

A Song at Twilight

"Purple Glow the Forest Mountains"
(by Mr. R. L. Pearsall)

"The Night is Calm and Cloudless"
(from "The Golden Legend" by Sir Arthur Sullivan and sung by Miss Bartlett and Chorus)

"Watchmen, What of the Night"
(duet with Mr. Richard Cook and Mr. Kit Edwards)

"The Long Day Closes"
by Sir Arthur Sullivan

****

I N T E R V A L

****

Sacred and Sentimental

"In the Gloaming" and "Sweet Genevieve"
(sung by the Barbershop Quartet)

"The Moon has raised her Lamp above"
(sung by Mr. Peter Mace and Mr. Richard Cook)

"In this Hour of Softened Splendour"
by Mr. C. Pinsuti

"The Holy City" by Mr. Stephen Adams
(sung by Miss Jacqueline Bartleet and Chorus)

Hearth and Home

"Sweet and Low" by Mr. J. Barnby
"Grandfather's Clock" by Mr. Henry Clay Work
"Home Sweet Home" by Mr. Henry Bishop and sung by Miss Jacqueline Bartleet and Chorus

Once Bit, Twice Shy
(or "The Queen IS Amused")

"Sweet Rosie O'Grady"
"Simon the Cellarer" (sung by Mr. Andy Cassey)
"Lilly of Laguna"
"See me Dance the Polka" (sung by Mr. Kit Edwards)
"The Carol Singers" by Mr. Sterndale Bennett
(and sung by Mr. Christopher Docker)

Finale - Music Hall Medley

"Oh Susanna"
"Old Folks at Home"
"Old Black Joe"
"Landlord. Fill the Flowing Bowl"
(with the Barbershop Quartet)
"Daisy Bell"
"Two Lovely Black Eyes"
"Down at the Old Bull and Bush"

HAMPTON SINGERS

Chairman
Alan Smyth

Director
Andrew Dicks